

Your Beginning For Being Better.

Comfort. Care. Choice. Since 1979, these characteristics remain the cornerstone of our company. Combined with our attention to personal service – U.S. Orthotics continues to achieve results as an industry leader in the design, manufacturing, and servicing of orthopedic products. Making a difference every day to our clients is our primary goal. We think of our work as the beginning of being better for them. It's this standard of excellence that we were built upon. The standard that we're identified with. And the standard that we remain committed to today. Quality products for a better quality of life.
